PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

April 1976 - 2002: Service in the Army Reserve as a JAG officer. Completed 34 years of commissioned service, and was awarded the Legion of Merit in May 2002, as “the Army’s foremost authority on family law”

February 1978 - present: Private practice of law, with practice limited to family law.

August 1976 - January 1978: Environmental attorney, National Association of Attorneys General.

April 1972 - April 1976: Military attorney with U. S. Army at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Served as Chief of the Legal Assistance Office for three years, supervising four other attorneys. The office served a client population in excess of 40,000 and handled a broad range of civil legal problems comparable to those found in general private practice. Responsible for organizing the Taxpayer Assistance Program and the Consumer Protection Program on post. Other duties included defense counsel in military trials and administrative discharge proceedings; counsel to Vietnam-era Army deserters during President Ford's Clemency Program (at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana); and lecturer on war crimes, military justice, wills, and consumer protection.

December 1971 - April 1972: First Lieutenant, U.S. Air Force, Griffiss Air Force Base, New York.

June 1971 - December 1971: Legal intern and staff attorney, Juvenile Section, Cleveland Legal Aid Society. Represented juveniles in cases of delinquency, neglect and dependency.
